1. This bail application has been filed on behalf of the accused-petitioner under Section 483 BNSS in connection with FIR No.31/2026 registered at Police Station Dug, District Jhalawar for the offences under Sections 126(2), 109(1) & 118(1) BNS.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has nothing to do with the alleged offences. Learned counsel further submits that after conclusion of investigation, charge-sheet has been filed in the matter. He also submits that injury caused to injured is simple in nature, complainant has turned hostile before the learned Trial Court, so, there is a bleak chance of conviction of the petitioner. Since, trial will take considerably long time to conclude, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody and therefore, prays that the petitioner may be granted the benefit of bail.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor and learned counsel for the complainant oppose the bail application. However, they are not in a position to dispute the fact that the complainant has turned hostile.

4. Having regard to the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case; considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner, as also the facts that the charge-sheet has been filed; injury is simple in nature and complainant has turned hostile and trial will take considerably long time in its conclusion, but without commenting anything on merits / demerits of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

5. Therefore, this bail application under Section 483 BNSS is allowed and the accused-petitioner Kamal Singh S/o Shankar Singh is ordered to be released on bail, provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties of Rs. 25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court, with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court or any Court to which the matter is transferred, on all subsequent dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.
