Order

19/03/2025

1. Apprehending their arrest in connection with FIR No. 116/2024 registered at Police Station Pahari, District Deeg, for the offence(s) under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 384 and 120-B of IPC and Sections 66-D and 66-E of IT Act, the petitioners have preferred this anticipatory bail application under Section 482 BNSS.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submit that the accused-petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case. The offences alleged to have been committed by the petitioners are triable by Magistrate. The petitioners are ready and willing to cooperate with the investigation. Custodial investigation of the accused-petitioners is not required. Therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted to the accused-petitioners.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes the anticipatory bail application.

4. I have considered the overall allegations levelled in the FIR and contentions made by the counsel for the parties.

5. Looking to the overall facts and circumstance of the case moreover custodial investigation of the accused petitioners is not required. The offences alleged to have been committed by the petitioners are exclusively triable by Magistrate and accused-petitioners are ready and willing to cooperate with the investigation, without expressing anything on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to allow the anticipatory bail application of the accused-petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application under Section 482 BNSS is allowed and it is ordered that in the event of arrest of the petitioners- 1. Ajruddin @ Ajru @ Kala S/o Mamrej, 2. Rashid @ Bhurru S/o Rukmuddin, in connection with FIR No. 116/2024 registered at Police Station Pahari, District Deeg, they shall be released on bail, provided each of them furnish personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- to the satisfaction of the S.H.O/I.O/Arresting Officer of the concerned Police Station on the following conditions:-
