Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that one of the condition in the advertisement was that the respective candidate, after acquiring requisite qualification, must have been registered with the Board of Indian Medicine, Rajasthan. Learned counsel submits that the application for seeking registration was submitted by the petitioners much before issuance of advertisement No.01/2025, however, the registration was delayed by the Board of Indian Medicine, Rajasthan for unjustified reasons and the registration certificate was issued on 27.05.2025 and 04.08.2025 respectively for both the petitioners.
