The crux of the dispute lies in the fact, whether the respondent was duly selected by a selection committee or not. While learned counsel for the State would submit that there was no selection through a duly constituted selection committee, learned counsel for the respondent relies upon a certificate issued by the Registrar to submit that the respondent was appointed through a duly constituted selection committee.

The Registrar, Malviya National Institute of Technology, Jaipur is not a party in this appeal. However, in order to resolve controversy, this Court requires to look into the relevant record of the Malviya National Institute of Technology wherein, the respondent claims to have selected through a duly constituted committee.

The Registrar, Malviya National Institute of Technology is directed to produce the original record of selection of the respondent for perusal of this Court.

A copy of this order be supplied to the Registrar, Malviya National Institute of Technology, Jaipur by the Registry.

List this case on 05.02.2024.

In view of the submissions made by learned State counsel that contempt proceedings have been initiated at the instance of the respondent, the effect and operation of impugned order shall remain in abeyance till the next date of hearing.
