Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that instant petition may be disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file a representation, with regard to his grievances, within a period of seven days before the Competent Authority.

In view of the above as well as relying upon the judgment passed by the Apex Court in the case of Shilpi Bose & Ors. Vs. State of Bihar & ors. reported in 1991 Supp (2) SCC 659, this Court is not inclined to interfere in the present petition.

The petitioner is granted liberty to file representation before the competent Authority within a period of 7 days. If the petitioner files the representation within the period given above the respondents are directed to decide the same within a period of 15 days thereafter, in accordance with law. The respondents would be at liberty to pass any further order considering the administrative exigencies.

Accordingly, the present petition is disposed of with the aforementioned directions.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
