Order

24/04/2026

1. This anticipatory bail application is filed by the accused petitioner u/S 482 BNSS in connection with FIR No. 100/2024 registered at Police Station Bapcha, District Baran for offences punishable u/S 8/20 of the NDPS Act and Section 420, 406, 467, 468, 471 & 120-B IPC.
2. Heard and considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the accused petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and also perused the case diary.
3. The allegation against the accused petitioner is that he in controversy with some other persons, by preparing the forged documents of a vehicle (truck) had sold the vehicle registered in the name of Suresh Yadav and Rs.14,00,000/- were transferred in the bank account of the present accused petitioner which were later on transferred to some other account.

4. Learned counsel for the accused petitioner is not in a position to controvert the fact that Rs.14,00,000/- were transferred in the bank account of the petitioner and he is also not able to explain why the amount has been transferred in the bank account of the accused petitioner.
5. The fact on record that Rs.14,00,000/- have been transferred in the bank account of the accused petitioner with regard to sale of the truck clearly speaks the connectivity of the accused petitioner with the alleged offence. Hence this Court is not inclined to extend the benefit of anticipatory bail to the accused-petitioner.
6. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is dismissed.
