2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case; petitioner is behind the bars since 17.02.2026; He further submits that the allegations levelled in the FIR, relate to the forgery of Rs. 1,00,000/-. Learned counsel also submits that in order to resolve their disputes amicably, the petitioners and the complainant have voluntarily entered into a compromise dated 02.01.2026, by which the complainant has been refunded the entire alleged amount by the petitioner; co-accused Pappu and Mahesh have been enlarged on anticipatory bail by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, vide order dated 09.02.2026 in S.B. Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 2332/2026; conclusion of trial may take a long time, so no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bars and, therefore, prays that the petitioner may be granted the benefit of bail under Section 483 of BNSS.

3. Learned counsel for the complainant admits the submissions made by the counsel for the petitioner and admit the fact of having entered into compromise with the petitioner.

4. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes the bail application.

5. Having regard to the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that petitioner is behind the bars since 02.01.2026; the case is triable by Magistrate and a compromise has already been arrived between the parties; trial will take its own time. Hence, this Court without expressing any opinion on the merits/demerits of the case, deems it just and proper to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

6. Therefore, this bail application under Section 483 BNSS is accordingly, allowed and the accused-petitioner Ranveer S/o Sahab Singh is ordered to be released on bail, provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties of Rs. 25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the trial Court, with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court and any court to which the matter is transferred, on all subsequent dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.
