HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR JAIN
Order

03/08/2026

1. The instant miscellaneous application has been preferred by the petitioner to recall the order dated 11.12.2025 only on the ground that the petitioner's miscellaneous application under Order VI Rule 17 CPC read with Section 151 CPC for amendment in the original writ petition was pending at the time of disposal of Writ Petition No. 14472/2024 on 11.12.2025. He submits that the order dated 11.12.2025 be recalled and Writ Petition No. 14472/2024 be restored for adjudication on merits.
2. Aforesaid contentions were opposed by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent(s) and submitted that this Court, after considering the submissions of both the parties, had decided the writ petition; therefore, there is no ground to recall the order.
3. Heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the material placed on record.
4. On 11.12.2025, Writ Petition No. 14472/2024 was disposed of along with another writ petition by the following order:-
 7. In view of submissions of learned counsel for parties, these writ petitions are disposed of with consent of the parties in following manner:
 - (i). These writ petitions are disposed of in terms of order dated 04.11.2025 in DB Special Writ Appeal No.931/2024 titled as Rameshwar Choudhary (supra) subject to any modification by Hon'ble Supreme Court in SLP filed by Rameshwar Choudhary and Ors. (supra) to assail the judgment dated 04.11.2025 passed by Division Bench.
 - (ii). The respondents shall apply the ratio as modified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, if any, either by interim or final order upon the case of present petitioner(s) and the petitioner(s) shall be entitled to same benefits, if any permitted and granted by Hon'ble

Supreme Court, pursuant to SLP filed by Rameshwar Choudhary (supra).

(iii). The interim order passed in these writ petitions will remain in force till expiry of 30 days from today but in case any interim order is passed in SLP (Diary) No.68798/2025 shall also be made applicable by respondents upon the case of petitioner(s).

5. The aforesaid facts clearly indicate that the order was passed with the consent of the counsel for the parties; therefore, there is no scope for recalling the order and restoring the writ petition for adjudication on merits.

6. In view of the discussion made herein-above, the miscellaneous application stands disposed of.
