Order

30/03/2026

Mr. Dilip Sharma, learned counsel for the petitioners, at the very outset, limits his submissions and prays that he may be granted liberty to invoke statutory remedy of appeal for ventilating his grievances.

Considering the limited submission so made, it is directed that in the event of any such appeal being filed by the petitioners within ten days from today i.e. 30.03.2026, the same be considered by the appropriate authority on its own merits, strictly in accordance with law, in a time bound manner.

Accordingly, with the above directions, the present writ petition is disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
