Order

03/11/2025

1. In the present criminal misc. petition, the petitioners have prayed for quashing the FIR No.117/2017 registered at Police Station Nadbai, District Bharatpur. It has been stated by learned counsel for the petitioners that after the lodging of FIR, compromise took place between the complainant and the petitioners. He submitted that in view of the compromise, chance of conviction of the petitioners is very bleak and weak. Therefore, he prayed for quashing of FIR.

2. Learned Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner-Raju was absconding for as many as six years and petitioners were not cooperating in the investigation. Thereafter, he was arrested by the police authorities on 04.10.2024 pursuant to aforesaid FIR and as earlier, the charge-sheet was filed under Section 299 Cr.P.C., after arresting the petitioners and after completing the investigation, a supplementary charge-sheet dated 12.11.2024 was filed before the Magistrate from where, the matter has been committed to the Court of Sessions Judge, Bharatpur.

3. In the light of above, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the instant criminal misc. petition with liberty to contest before the Competent Court.

4. In view of above, the instant criminal misc. petition is dismissed as not pressed.
