Order

28/03/2025

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted the respondents have issued an advertisement dated 09.09.2024, inviting applications for direct recruitment on the post of Medical Officer, whereby in total, 1220 posts were advertised as per the Rajasthan Medical Service Rules, 1963.

It is further submitted that the petitioner has qualified the MBBS course and is provisionally registered with the Rajasthan Medical Council and is even in possession of provisional certificate dated 30.09.2024. Therefore, there is a substantive compliance of the requisite condition. Further, it is submitted that a valid registration certificate is required before the written examination, howsoever, the final registration certificate is not issued till date and therefore, respondents are not accepting the application form of the petitioner and are even not permitting the petitioner to appear in the examination.

Considering the substantive compliance of qualification, and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is in possession of the provisional certificate however, for reasons beyond control, final registration certificate is not issued and there is a likelihood that the same is warranted prior to the written examination that is scheduled on 27.04.2025 however the last date to submit the application form is 02.04.2025; this Court directs the respondents to accept the candidature of the petitioner provisionally.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the respondents are directed to do the following:

1. Provisionally permit the petitioner to appear in the examination that is scheduled on 27.04.2025
2. Do not declare her final result, without the permission of the Court.
3. If in any case the online application of the petitioner is not accepted, the petitioner be permitted to submit the same offline/manually.

List the matter on 29.04.2025.
