Since, the issues involved in both the petitions are common, they are being tagged.

Indisputably, the petitioners were appointed as contractual Driver and Helper respectively through the placement Agency and had no privity of contract with the State Government.

However, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that since, they have worked during the Covid-19 period, they have right to continue as contractual Driver and Helper and these writ petitions are maintainable. He prays for and is granted a week's time to substantiate his legal proposition.
