----Respondent

---

For Appellant : Mr. Punit Singhvi Advocate.

---

HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE MR. MANINDRA MOHAN SHRIVASTAVA
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANAND SHARMA

Judgment

09/04/2025

1. Heard.
2. Order passed by learned Single Judge is under challenge mainly on the ground that the tender of the appellant was wrongly rejected and, therefore, appropriate interim order ought to have been passed to at least allow the appellant provisionally to undertake the work for which tender was invited.
3. Irrespective of the merits of the case, prayer for allowing the appellant to provisionally execute the work under tender would virtually amount to allowing the writ petition. Such order has not been passed by the learned Single Judge. Therefore, no case for interference is made out.

4. Appeal is, accordingly, dismissed.
