Order

14/07/2026

1. By way of filing the instant criminal misc. petition, a prayer has been made to quash the impugned FIR No.692/2022 registered at the Police Station Kho-Nagoriyan, District Jaipur (East) for the offences punishable under Sections 376(2)(n) and 384 IPC.

2. It has been apprised at Bar by learned counsels for the parties that during pendency of the trial, the prosecutrix has entered into a compromise with the petitioner and she has not supported the version of prosecution and as such she has been declared as hostile. Hence, a prayer has been made to quash the proceedings of the impugned FIR in view of the changed circumstances.

3. Heard and considered the submissions made at the Bar and perused the material available on record.

4. If the prosecutrix has not supported the version of the prosecution and she has been declared as hostile and if she was entered into compromise with the petitioner, these facts would be appreciated by the Trial Court at the appropriate stage of the trial. Declaration of the witness as hostile cannot be a ground for quashing of the proceedings.

5. Since the main matter is still pending before the Trial Court, it is expected from the Trial Court to decide the main matter on the basis of the evidence available on record and after considering the statements of the prosecutrix.

6. With the aforesaid observations, the instant criminal misc. petition, stay application as well as all pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
