HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANAND SHARMA
Order

01/07/2026

1. The instant writ petition has been filed by the petitioner with following prayers:

"It is, therefore, humbly prayed that your Lordships may graciously be pleased to accept and allow this writ petition by calling the entire record and after perusal of the same :-

(i) Issue a writ in the nature of Mandamus or any other appropriate writ, order or direction commanding the Respondent Bank to immediately unfreeze the amount forming the subject matter of present writ of the Petitioner bearing Account No.676051200011 , held by the Petitioner

(ii) Direct the Respondent Bank to provide written reasons or the freezing of the account and any communication received from Cyber Crime authorities, if any.

(iii) Declare that the action of the Respondent Bank is arbitrary, illegal, and violative of Articles 14, 19(1)(g), and 300A of the Constitution of India.

(iv) Award costs of this petition in favour of the Petitioner.

(v) Pass such further or other orders as may be deemed just and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case by this Hon'ble court."

2. At the outset, learned counsel for the respondents object that as per Standard Operating Procedure framed by the respondents, proper mechanism has been provided to consider the grievances against freezing of account and in the instant case, entire account of the petitioner has not been freezed and only the disputed amount has been put under lien by the respondent-Bank.

3. Thereupon, learned counsel for the petitioner limited his prayer to grant him liberty to approach the appropriate authority in respect of grievances of the petitioner and has prayed that authority may be directed to pass appropriate order expeditiously.

4. In view of above, where only the disputed amount, in respect of which complaints were received with regard to involvement of such amount in cyber crime, was freezed and rest of the account is free to be used by the petitioner and is in under operation, this Court deems it just and proper to dispose of the present writ petition by granting liberty to the petitioner to approach the Competent Authority, which shall consider the representation along with documents, if any, filed by the petitioner within a period of 7 days from today and, in case, any representation is filed, the same shall be decided within a period of 15 days thereafter by a reasoned and speaking order.

5. Accordingly, the present petition stands disposed of.

6. Pending application(s), if any, also stand(s) disposed of.
