Order

22/04/2026

The petitioner has filed this instant writ petition challenging his transfer order dated 10.01.2026 on the ground that only a period of less than three months is left in his retirement.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner just wants to have a peaceful retirement from the place where he is currently posted.

Considering the request made by the petitioner to be genuine and the fact that learned Additional Advocate General, appearing for respondent-Department did not oppose the prayer made by the petitioner. This Court deems it just and proper to quash and set aside the impugned transfer order dated 10.01.2026, relieving order dated 24.03.2026 and the order of the learned Rajasthan Civil Services Appellate Tribunal, Jaipur dated 07.04.2026.

The respondents are directed to maintain the petitioner herein on the post where he was working prior to passing of the impugned transfer order dated 10.01.2026 and he shall not be disturbed till his retirement which is scheduled on 31.07.2026.

In view of the above observations, the present writ petition is disposed of.
