20/08/2026

1. This writ petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed by and on behalf of petitioners-landlords, feeling aggrieved by judgment dated 20.02.2018 passed by Appellate Rent Tribunal in Appeal No.82/2017 whereby and whereunder the eviction certificate passed by the Rent Tribunal dated 22.10.2016 in Application No.225/2008, has been set aside and the eviction petition was dismissed.

2. Counsel for petitioners, having instructions from petitioners, states that during course of this writ petition, both parties have mutually entered into compromise and the rent premises has been sold to the respondents, hence, in that view, petitioners do not want to pursue this writ petition.

3. In view of above, instant writ petition is dismissed as not press.

4. Stay application and other pending application(s), if any, stand disposed of.
