Order

22/08/2025

It is noticed that in spite of the directions issued by this Court, compliance has not been made. The officer is not present and additional affidavit has been filed with the Registry which is not on record.

However, learned counsel appearing for the PF department has read out the contents of the affidavit which reflects that the compliance has not been made.

The Commissioner shall remain present in the Court on the next date. However, if compliance is made and payment is released, his personal appearance shall be exempted.

List on 16.09.2025.
