Order

27/04/2026

The present writ petition has been filed invoking the supervisory jurisdiction of this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. The instant matter is arising out of a dispute pertaining to a temporary injunction order and the consequential appellate proceedings under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

Learned counsel for the respondents have already entered their appearance by way of a caveat.

A copy of the petition was served upon them in advance, and the respondents have duly placed their reply on record.

Extensive arguments were advanced at length by the learned counsel representing the respective parties.

With the consent of the respective parties, the matter was heard at length, and the same is hereby reserved.

In the interregnum, the respective parties are at liberty to submit their brief written submissions, encapsulating the arguments advanced during the course of the hearing, along with the judicial precedents and judgments relied upon by them within a period of one working day from the date of passing of this order.
