Order

06/05/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.309/2024 registered at Police Station Uniara, District Tonk for offences under Section 305(e) of BNS, 2023.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner has been implicated in the present case solely on the basis of the disclosure statement of the co-accused, Manraj, who has already been granted the benefit of bail by the learned Trial Court vide order dated 18.12.2025. The case of the petitioner is akin to him. Petitioner is behind the bars since 20.11.2025 though six cases have been reported against him but in all the cases he is already on bail. The trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in further custody and on the ground of parity with other co-accused, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in light of submission made on behalf of petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Hemraj S/o Mangilal, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
