Order

03/08/2026

1. This contempt petition has been filed by the petitioner in respect of the interim order dated 26.07.2023, whereby the Court directed the respondents to permit the petitioner for document verification and consider her candidature on merits in divorce category for the post in question, provisionally subject to final outcome of the writ petition.

2. Learned counsel for the respondent-Rajasthan Staff Selection Board, which is a recruiting agency, states that considering the claim of the petitioner and to extend the substantial relief in case the petitioner succeeds in the petition, the Board has already made one vacancy reserve for the petitioner.

3. Heard and considered the submissions made at Bar.

4. Considering the fact that the respondent-Rajasthan Staff Selection Board has already kept one post vacant for the petitioner in case she succeeds in the writ petition, this Court is of the opinion that the respondents have made substantial compliance of the interim order.

5. Accordingly, the contempt petition is disposed of. Contempt notices stand discharged.
