Order

06/05/2026

1. This habeas corpus petition has been filed on behalf of the petitioner – Teetu.

2. Today the concerned police officer has produced the corpus before us.
3. Date of birth of the corpus is 20.03.2005 which has been confirmed by the counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Government Advocate-cum-Additional Advocate General.
4. We have interacted with the corpus and she has firmly stated before us that she is not in any illegal detention and she wants to go and live with the petitioner.
5. Considering the fact that the corpus is major, we set the corpus at liberty to go and live as per her own free will.
6. The concerned police officer is directed to make sure that no harm is caused to the corpus while going at the place of her choice.
7. In that view of the matter, this habeas corpus petition stands disposed of.
