Order

08/05/2026

1. The present bail application under Section 483 of BNSS is filed by the applicant-accused Mukesh Sansi S/o Jelarram seeking bail in respect of a criminal case registered as FIR No.109/2026 dated 29.03.2026 registered at P.S. Ajeetgarh District - Sikar , for the offence under Sections 8, 21 and 22 of NDPS Act.
2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the matter and the investigation against him is complete and he is no more required in investigation. He further submits that there are no chance of fleeing of applicant accused from the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Court. He also submits that the applicant undertakes not to repeat offence and cooperate with investigation/trial, which will take time.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the recovery has been effected from Harlal, who is in custody, on the basis of intimation given by Harlal Saini. The present petitioner was named as an abettor and he has been charged under Section 29 of the NDPS Act. He also submitted that as per police report, 24 capsules of proxycodone SPAS were recovered from Harlal, which contain maximum upto 13.44 gram tramadol. He also submitted that besides this, 1.52 gram of smack (heroin) was recovered from Harlal and the same is small quantity. He also submitted that as per record, two more criminal cases were registered against the petitioner, in which one has been disposed of wherein the petitioner was acquitted. He also submitted that in the second case, he was released on bail by the trial court on 08.04.2026.
4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application and submitted that the allegations are grave and serious in nature. He has also filed a report received from concerned Police Station.
5. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner-accused and learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the material placed on record by both the parties.
6. On 29.03.2026, SHO PS Ajitgarh searched a person found in suspicious condition and recovered 24 capsules of Proxycodone Spas containing tramadol hydrochloride, acetaminophen and 1.52 gram of smack/heroin. The detained person, Harlal, informed the police that he procured the contraband from Mukesh. Police registered FIR No. 109/2026 under Sections

8/21 and 22 of the NDPS Act. The present petitioner is in custody since his arrest for offence under Section 29 of the NDPS Act. Two more criminal cases were registered against the petitioner, in which one has resulted into disposal on the basis of compromise and in another case, the petitioner has been released on bail.

7. Upon hearing the arguments and perusing the record, we have found that the applicant-accused is no more required in the investigation and he is in custody for quite some time. The further proceedings will take its own time, therefore, looking to entirety of facts and circumstances of the case and without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, the Court deems it appropriate to grant bail to the applicant-accused.
8. Thus, the instant bail application filed on behalf of applicant-accused Mukesh Sansi S/o Jelarram, is hereby allowed and the applicant-accused is ordered to be released on bail upon furnishing a personal bond of ₹50,000/- with two sureties of like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court with the following conditions:-
 - (i) The applicant-accused shall not tamper with evidence or influence the witness in any manner.
 - (ii) The applicant-accused shall not indulge in any criminal activity and shall not repeat any criminal offence punishable under the Law.
 - (iii) The applicant-accused shall attend the hearing of the Trial Court on the date fixed by the Trial court or as and when asked to appear before the Trial Court.

(iv) In case of any violation of above conditions, the bail granted to the applicant-accused shall be liable to be canceled.

9. The Registry is directed to send a copy of this order to the Trial Court through E-mail.
