Order

05/05/2026

Upon delineating the nitty-gritty of the matter in detail, vide order dated 02.07.2025, and whilst passing a conditional stay order it was observed that the execution petition be kept in abeyance and the petition was listed for consideration before the Vacation Bench, however, thereupon learned counsel for the respondent couldn't mark presence.

Considering that a limited issue is involved wherein the primary contention of the petitioner is that no medical board was constituted, and gross negligence is conducted by the petitioner qua the respondent; no specific compliance order was passed as directed by the competent authority, for constitution of the board and listing of the matter before the appropriate specialized Bench.

Considering the same, and the consensus drawn inter-se the respective sides, let the matter be listed for final disposal in the supplementary cause list of 12.05.2026 at 11:00 a.m.
