Learned counsel for the petitioner, after arguing the matter at some length and upon instructions from his client, seeks permission to withdraw the present writ petition.

Permission sought for is granted.

Accordingly, in view of the above, the present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.

However, the petitioner would always be at liberty to assail the legality and validity of the impugned order before the learned First Appellate Court, if occasion so arises.

The stay application as well as other pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
