HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PRAVEER BHATNAGAR

Order

25/05/2026

1. The petitioner has applied for anticipatory bail and seeks Court intervention with regard to his apprehension to arrest. It is contended that the main beneficiary is other co-accused Shyam Singh, who sold the property to the present petitioner. It is further contended that the accused-petitioner is ready and willing to co-operate with the investigation and other similarly placed co-accused have already been granted interim protection, therefore, the petitioner may be protected.

2. Learned Public Prosecutor as well as learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant have opposed the grant of any interim protection. It is also contended by learned counsel for the complainant that the complainant in connivance with the other co-accused Shyam Singh and late Fakeer sold the property of deceased Banwari Lal by impersonation and thereby deceived the legal heirs of the deceased. The petitioner is also one of the beneficiary as co-accused Shyam Singh within a duration of 11 days, sold the property to the petitioner, therefore, the petitioner is not entitled for any protection as prima facie an offence is made out against the petitioner.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor seeks time to furnish the factual report.

4. Heard and perused the material available on record.

5. It is not desirable to express anything on the merits of the case. Considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner and the fact that the main allegations of forging the documents and purchasing the property by impersonation are against the other co-accused Shyam Singh, this Court deems it just and proper to protect the petitioner from arrest in connection with FIR No.153/2024, registered at Police Station Vizirpur, District Gangapur City, till further orders subject to the condition that the petitioner shall appear before the Investigating Officer on or before 10.06.2026 and co-operate with the investigation.

6. Learned Public Prosecutor is directed to submit the factual report on the next date of hearing.

7. List the matter on 03.07.2026, till then the petitioner shall not be arrested.
