Order

07/05/2026

1. After arguing at some length, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner would be satisfied, if she is permitted to file a comprehensive representation ventilating her grievances before the respondents-Authority.
2. In view of limited prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court deems it just and proper to direct the petitioner to submit a comprehensive representation before the respondents-Authority ventilating her grievances within a period of two weeks from today.

3. If any such representation is filed by the petitioner before the respondents-Authority within the stipulated period, the respondents-Authority shall consider and decide the same strictly in accordance with law, by passing a reasoned and speaking order within a period of 30 days from the date of its receipt. The respondents-Authority shall communicate the decision of the representation to the petitioner within one week thereafter.
4. Needless to say that, if the petitioner is aggrieved by the decision of the representation, she would be at liberty to file a fresh writ petition in accordance with law.
5. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on merits of the case.
6. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of.
7. Stay application(s) and pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
