2. Heard learned counsels for the petitioners as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 16.02.2026. The case of the present petitioners are on better footing. Petitioners are behind the bars since 23.04.2026 without any criminal past. The trial of the case will take considerable time, therefore, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioners in further custody and on the ground of parity with other co-accused, the bail application of the petitioners may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioners.

6. Consequently, the bail applications under Section 483 B.N.S.S. are allowed and it is directed that the petitioners Parvej S/o Aalam and Arvej S/o Aalam, be released on bail provided each of them furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that each of them shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
