Order

22/05/2026

1. While assailing the order dated 04.03.2025 passed by the learned Permanent Lok Adalat, Alwar, in Original Application No.307/2020 titled as 'Shivcharan Gupta v. HDB Financial Services Limited & Anr.', learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the learned Permanent Lok Adalat erred in passing the impugned award, the same having been passed in gross violation of the agreement executed between the parties. He further submits that the agreement contains a specific clause providing for redressal of disputes through arbitration and conferring jurisdiction upon the courts at Chennai. He submits that the learned Permanent Lok Adalat, while passing the impugned award, failed to appreciate the said aspect in its proper perspective. Learned counsel further submits that during the pendency of the present writ petition, the respondents are bent upon executing the impugned award. He, therefore, prays that effect, operation and execution of the impugned award may kindly be stayed.

2. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents opposes the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner and submits that learned Permanent Lok Adalat has rightly appreciated the pleadings and material available on record while passing the impugned award. He, accordingly, prays for dismissal of the present writ petition.

3. Heard learned counsel for the parties and considered the facts and circumstances of the case.

4. Till the next date of hearing, the effect, operation and execution of the impugned award dated 04.03.2025 passed by the learned Permanent Lok Adalat, Alwar, in Original Application No.307/2020 titled as 'Shivcharan Gupta v. HDB Financial Services Limited & Anr.', shall remain stayed.

In Civil Misc. Second Stay Application No. 956/2026:-

1. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the Civil Misc. Second Stay Application No. 956/2026.
2. Permission sought for is granted.
3. Accordingly the Civil Misc. Second Stay Application No. 956/2026 is dismissed as withdrawn.
