1. The instant bail application has been filed under Section 483 BNSS on behalf of accused-petitioner. The accused-petitioner has been arrested in connection with FIR No. 189/2025 registered at Police Station Janoothar, District Deeg for the offences under Section 8/20 of NDPS Act.
2. Learned counsel for the accused-petitioner submits that the accused-petitioner has falsely been implicated for the offence under Section 8/20 of NDPS Act. It is further contended that the petitioner was not aware that his nephew was carrying Ganja in his car, petitioner is in custody since long and further trial of the case may take considerable time, there are no criminal antecedents against the accused-petitioner with regard to NDPS Act and there is no connectivity of petitioner with other co-accused persons with regard to supply of contraband article, therefore, the bail application of the accused-petitioner may be allowed.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application. It is further contended that petitioner is a habitual offender and against him two cases are registered, therefore, bail of the present petitioner may be dismissed.

4. Heard and perused the material available on record.

5. Considering the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner and looking to the fact that petitioner is in custody since long and further trial of the case may take considerable time, therefore, without commenting anything on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to enlarge the accused-petitioner on bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-petitioner Satish S/o Shri Banwari Lal, in connection with FIR No. 189/2025 registered at Police Station Janoothar, District Deeg shall be enlarged on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial Judge for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.

7. The accused-petitioner is also directed to mark his presence on 25th of every month till conclusion of trial before the concerned police station. The SHO of the concerned police station is directed to maintain a regular register marking the presence of the accused-petitioner and shall send the presence report of the
