Order

11/07/2022

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that inspite of sufficient opportunities granted to concerned police officer, no sincere efforts have been made to trace out the corpus and produce before this Court.

Learned Additional Government Advocate on instructions of the concerned police officer prays for further two weeks time so as to enable the police officer to make effective and sincere enquiry/investigation.

In the light of submissions made by learned Additional Government Advocate, we grant further two weeks time to the concerned police officer to trace out the corpus and submit the factual report before this Court on the next date. Such factual report shall indicate day-to-day efforts made on day-to-day basis by the concerned police officer.

List on 01.08.2022.
