The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners contends that the petitioner No.1 – Sunita Kumari appeared before a Coordinate Bench and specifically stated that she has performed marriage with the petitioner No.2. Counsel further contends that subsequently, the parents got custody of the petitioner No.1 and she changed her version in her statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C.

The learned counsel appearing for the respondents has submitted that the petitioner No.1 was not identified in this Court.

Counsel appearing for the petitioners contends that the petitioner No.1 appeared in this Court, after she had performed marriage at Gajiabad (U.P.) and had stayed for a long with the petitioner No.2 and she had also visited the High Court.

Matter requires consideration at length.

Hence, the present petition is admitted.

Interim order, already in favour of the petitioners, shall continue, till disposal of the present petition.
