The appeal was admitted by this court on 8.12.2016 and thereafter application for suspension of sentence was filed by the convict appellant on 20.2.2017 and practice of this Court is that applications are filed after advance copy being served in the office of Public Prosecutor.

When the matter came up before the court on 3.3.2017, time was granted to the Public Prosecutor to file reply and thereafter further time was granted on 21.3.2017 but no reply to the application has been filed although in connected application filed by another appellant Shakeel Public Prosecutor informed this court that reply has been filed on behalf of the prosecution to the application for suspension of sentence which can certainly be considered as reply in connected suspension of sentence applications.

Let the counsel may come prepared to address on merits to the application for suspension of sentence.
