Order

24/07/2026

1. Complainant is present in person and she has duly been identified by her counsel.
2. By way of these criminal misc. petitions under Section 528 of the BNSS, the accused-petitioners have approached this Court with a prayer to quash the FIR No.42/2015 registered at Police Station Mahila Thana, District Jaipur (South) for the offences punishable under Sections 498A, 406 & 323 of the IPC along with all consequential proceedings arising thereto.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that vide order dated 24.04.2026 passed in S.B. Criminal Misc. Petition No.3618/2015, parties were directed to appear before the Mediation Centre to explore the possibility of amicable settlement between the parties. He submits that a mediation report dated 12.05.2026 has been placed on record. As per which, parties have resolved their dispute amicably with the proper guidance of their respective counsels. It is submitted that in terms of compromise, a demand draft bearing No.137932, issued by State Bank of India and drawn in favour of Ms. Sukruti Upadhyay for a sum of Rs.35,00,000/- has been handed over today in Court to the learned counsel for the respondent No.2-complainant. It is further submitted that one necklace has also been handed over by respondent No. 2-complainant to her father-in-law, who does not dispute the same.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor and learned counsel for the complainant do not dispute the aforesaid factual position. Learned counsel for the complainant submits that the complainant has no objection if the FIR in question and all subsequent proceedings are quashed.

5. Considering the submissions made on behalf of the respective parties; the material made available for my perusal and the fact that the parties have resolved their dispute amicably and the present case is wholly covered by the principle of law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr-reported in 2012 Cr.L.J. (SC) 4934 and in the case of State of Haryana & Ors. Vs. Choudhary Bhajan Lal & Ors. [AIR 1992 SC 604], the aforesaid FIR is liable to be quashed in view of compromise arrived at between the parties.

6. In view of the above, these criminal misc. petitions are allowed and the FIR No.42/2015 registered at Police Station Mahila Thana, District Jaipur (South) along with criminal proceedings arising out of it are quashed and set aside. Consequence to follow.

7. Stay application(s), if any, also stands disposed of.
