For Respondent(s)

Mr. Manvendra Singh Shekhawat, P.P.

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUROOP SINGHI (V.J.)
Order

22/06/2026

1. The instant bail application has been filed by the accused-applicant by invoking the provisions of Section 483 of BNSS, 2023, the requisite details of which are as under:-

Sr. No.	Particulars
1	FIR No. & Date	538/2025 & 16.10.2025
2	Concerned Police Station	Kaman, District Deeg
3	Offences as alleged in FIR	Under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 352, 303(2), 189(2) and 329(3) of BNS, 2023
4	Date of Arrest	11.05.2026

2. Learned counsel for the accused-applicant submits that as per the above mentioned FIR, the primary offence alleged against the accused-applicant along with other accused named therein is of uprooting a Jamun tree from the land of the complainant which is false and he has been falsely implicated in the present case, and prima facie, no offence as alleged in the above mentioned FIR is made out against him.

3. Learned counsel also submits that out of the four previous FIRs registered against the accused-applicant, he has already been acquitted in one of the FIRs.

4. Learned counsel further submits that all the alleged offences in the above mentioned FIR are triable by Magistrate and that the accused-applicant is in custody since 11.05.2026 and will duly cooperate in the ongoing investigation with respect to the above mentioned FIR.

Hence, learned counsel prays that the accused-applicant be granted bail.

5. Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the averments made by learned counsel for the accused-applicant, however, he could not dispute the fact that all the alleged offences involved in the present matter are triable by Magistrate.

6. Heard learned counsel for the accused-applicant and the learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

7. Having regard to the submissions advanced, and the fact that all the alleged offences are triable by Magistrate and the accused-applicant is willing to cooperate in the ongoing investigation, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the accused – applicant in custody. Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits/demerits of the case, this Court is inclined to enlarge the accused – applicant on bail.

8. Consequently, the present bail application is allowed and the accused–applicant Khurshid S/o Saudan arrested in connection with the above mentioned FIR be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case upon furnishing of personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of the same amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court, with the stipulation that he shall appear before the learned trial Court on all dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so until completion of the trial.

9. Additionally, the accused – applicant will also remain bound by the following conditions:-

(i) The accused – applicant shall not leave the country without seeking prior permission of the learned trial Court;

(ii) The accused – applicant shall not commit any offence similar to the offence(s) of which he stands accused of and in the event, the accused – applicant is found to be involved in any other similar case in the future, the prosecution shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application before the learned trial Court for cancellation of the bail granted herein;

(iii) The accused – applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade such person from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer/investigating authority; and

(iv) The accused – applicant shall not tamper with any evidence nor would influence any witnesses in the case.
