Order

06/04/2021

1. The matter has come up on the application filed by the petitioner for deciding his stay application.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that similarly situated candidates have been granted interim relief vide order dated 11.02.2021 in S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.20687/2019; Neeraj Meena vs. State of Rajasthan and they have been allowed to perform their duties with the direction that they shall not be replaced by another set of contractual employees from any other source till regular selections are made, therefore, the petitioner is also entitled for same interim relief.

3. While admitting the fact of above said interim relief, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents wants to verify the facts of this case and seeks time to file reply to the petition.

4. On perusal of the material made available on record, this Court finds that the case of the petitioner is quite identical to the candidates who have been granted interim relief as claimed by the petitioner, therefore, in parity with other similarly situated candidates, the present stay application is allowed. The petitioner shall be allowed to perform his duties and shall not be replaced by another set of contractual employees from any other source till regular selections are made.

5. The matter be listed on 24.05.2021 along with S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.20687/2019.

6. In the meantime, the respondents may file reply.
