HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE BIPIN GUPTA
Judgment / Order

17/07/2026

1. The present bail application has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023 against the order dated 30.05.2026 passed by the learned Sessions Judge, District Karauli, in Criminal Misc. Case No.249/2026, whereby the bail application of the petitioner was rejected in connection with F.I.R. No.147/2026, Police Station- Sapotra, District-Karauli, for the offences under Sections 303(2) of BNS 2023 and Section 4/21, Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody since 25.05.2026. He further submits that the challan in the case has already been filed. Moreover, the conclusion of trial will take sufficiently long time and the offences are triable by Magistrate.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner fairly submits that, apart from the present case, there are four other FIRs registered against the petitioner for different offences, out of which two FIRs pertain to offences under the same Act. He further submits that the petitioner may be enlarged on bail subject to any stringent conditions that this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper to impose.

4. Per Contra, learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes the present bail application.

5. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

6. Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case and upon a consideration of the fact that the offences are triable by Magistrate; the challan has been filed; trial will take considerable time; however considering the fact that the petitioner has been involved in past two other similar cases; this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner may be enlarged on bail on stringent conditions.

7. Consequently, the bail application is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner namely- Suresh @ Kadya S/o Shri Maddu arrested in connection with F.I.R. No.147/2026, Police Station-Sapotra, District-Karauli, shall be released on bail; provided he furnishes a personal bond of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rs. One Lakh Only) with two sureties of Rs. 50,000/- (Rs. Fifty Thousand Only) each, to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court, with the stipulation that he shall appear before the said Court on all dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so until completion of the trial, subject to the following stringent conditions:

(i) The petitioner shall not leave country without the permission of the Court;

(ii) The petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, of the commission of which he is suspected;

(iii) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

(iv) In the event the petitioners are found involved in any other similar offences in the future, the prosecution shall be at liberty to move an appropriate application before the learned Trial Court for cancellation of the bail granted therein;

(v) The accused-petitioner shall mark his presence before the concerned police station once in a month as fixed by the Investigating Officer and a register shall be maintained for the same by Investigating Officer; and

(vi) In case of any change of residential address, the accused-petitioner shall immediately inform the Investigating Officer as well as the trial Court.
