At the very outset, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellant seeks a short accommodation to file the additional affidavit with regard to the explanation qua the circumstances that led to the learned Commercial Court's proceeding ex parte against the appellant, owing to which the appellant could not defend the impugned award which was set aside by the learned Commercial Court.

He would submit that, primarily, the file was entrusted to the counsel, namely, Mr. Bharat Raj Yogi, who was earlier working with him as an associate. Despite not filing the power of attorney, the said counsel appeared on two occasions and thereafter abandoned the proceedings without informing him. He may file an affidavit, as sought by him.

Post the matter on 18.08.2026.
