For Petitioner(s)	:	Mr. Bhagwat Singh Ranawat, petitioner in person
For Respondent(s)	:	Mr. R.D. Rastogi, Additional Solicitor General of India assisted by Mr. Devesh Yadav, Advocate

Order

13/12/2022

Heard on the second stay application.

The petitioner in person would submit that when the application for stay was earlier rejected by this Court, many important aspects of the matter and various orders could not be brought to the notice of the Court which have now been annexed along with the application.

We find that operative reason for rejecting the application for stay was that the petitioner was indolent and there was delay in filing the petition and further that his license has not been renewed since 2003.

In this view of the matter, we are not inclined to grant any interim order in favour of the petitioner.

However, if the law permits, it would be open for the petitioner to apply afresh and in that case, the authorities shall consider his application and the same shall be decided. The application would not be rejected only on the ground that writ petition has remained pending.

Subject to the aforesaid observations, the second stay application is disposed off.
