The petitioner present in person would submit that the respondents have illegally changed their policy which is illegal and therefore, petitioner's license having been issued by respondent No.3 is liable to be quashed and appropriate directions be issued for renewal.

Learned Additional Solicitor General would submit that not only the petition has been filed highly belatedly but also the license has not been renewed since 2003.

Considering the submissions of the petitioner in person and counsel for the respondents particularly taking into consideration the delay in filing the petition and license has not been renewed since 2003, no case is made out for stay and therefore the application is rejected.

List this case for final hearing in due course.
