HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SAMEER JAIN

Order

12/11/2025

Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that in the matter at hand, allegations of causing death by sprinkling tarpin oil and putting victim on fire has been leveled on the applicant. It is submitted that the applicant was not named in the FIR. It is further submitted that applicant is in custody ever since 27.10.2024 and the trial has commenced in the matter which will take long time to conclude.

It is also submitted that there exist no criminal antecedents against the applicant and at the date of incidence the applicant was approximately 25 kms away from the place of incident, therefore, reliance on the CCTV footage is immaterial in the present matter. Moreover, the motive of murder has been assigned to be illicit relationship between the deceased and the wife of the applicant, however, as per the charge-sheet, the wife of the applicant has not been made witness in the present matter.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the instant bail application and has submitted that upon perusal of the medical report submitted by the expert, there was a presence of Hydrocarbon, which was used for the flaming purpose, on the recovered objects such as clothes, undergarments and mobile of the deceased. It is further submitted that the matter at hand is of circumstantial evidence as the applicant has traveled all the way from the state of UP to commit the incident which occurred at the railway station and its nearby areas.

Heard the submissions put forth by learned counsel for the parties, the concerned Investigating Officer, is hereby, directed to remain present before this Court on the next date of hearing to elucidate as to why Anjali (the wife of the Applicant), with whom an illicit relationship of the deceased is alleged in the instant matter, has been left out from the investigation.

List the matter on 25.11.2025.

The concerned Superintendent of Police is also directed to remain present through VC to substantiate the matter at hand.
