Order

05/02/2026

1. Application No.1/2026 filed for early listing stands disposed of.
2. On 27.10.2021, an interim order is passed in Writ Petition No.12145/2021, directing the respondents to keep two posts vacant, in case less meritorious persons are given appointment.
3. Prior to that on 24.09.2021 in S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.10858/2021, one post was kept vacant, in case persons having obtained marks less than petitioner has been given appointment.
4. These two orders are still in force and never vacated by this Court, on any of occasion till date.

5. Result dated 22.01.2026 declared by RPSC indicate that Writ Petition No.12145/2021 and 10858/2021 were dismissed by this Court, whereas these writ petitions are still pending before this Court.

6. The contentions of learned counsel for respondent (RPSC) is that on 16.01.2025, a pre-emptory order was passed in bunch of petition, which include Writ Petition No.10858/2021 and 12145/2021, so the RPSC under the impression have issued the result.

7. Having considered the explanation as offered by learned counsel for respondent-RPSC, it is expected of RPSC to withdraw result dated 22.01.2026 latest by tomorrow 04.30 PM failing which, Chairman of RPSC along with Secretary of RPSC shall personally remain present before this Court so as to show cause, why contempt proceedings are not initiated against them for deliberately violating the order of this Court and declaration of result without verification of dismissal.

8. List at 02.00 PM for compliance on 11.02.2026.
