Order

28/08/2019

1. Mr.Saini, learned counsel assisting the court would prepare a compilation of the relevant orders concerning Bharatpur and other important orders in the main proceeding. The compilation would also include a 15 page pleading/synopsis in respect of the main issue and brief discussion of the orders chronologically from time to time.
2. Learned Additional Advocate General submitted that the position in the revenue maps, would be reflected as form of copies filed (i.e. showing original position as in 1947, 1955 and the factual position as on the date). The maps filed would also show the position with regard to water bodies and water channels as existing in Bharatpur and its larger area, for water conservation and also the current position on the site. In addition, the State shall file an affidavit mentioning each encroachment, in a tabular manner and also indicate remedial action taken or to be taken. This affidavit shall be also in compliance of the order dated 26/07/2018, which was reiterated on 27/03/2019.
