Order

13/05/2025

Though these cases are listed for orders on application for vacating stay, taking into consideration the nature of dispute which essentially revolves around common use of pasturage by all including cows which are kept in Hingoniya Gaushala, before proceeding further in the matter, we are inclined to explore possibility of amicable settlement through the process of mediation.

The petitioners, respondent No.9, a representative of respondent No.7 and Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Bassi shall participate in the process of mediation.

All these parties shall appear in the Office of Mediation Centre of Rajasthan High Court Legal Services Committee on 26.05.2025. The process of mediation shall be concluded within a period of two months from the date of first appearance of all the parties before the Mediator.

List in the 1st Week of August, 2025.

In the meanwhile, if the respondent No.9 submits a representation to the Municipal Corporation, Greater and Heritage within a period of ten days with a request to increase the supply of green fodder, the same shall be considered by the Corporation(s).

On the next date of hearing, the Corporation(s) shall also submit its response containing its decision on the representation made by respondent No.9.
