It is informed that the respondent-writ petitioner has already appeared in the Mathematics examination but could not appear in the Sanskrit examination.

Learned counsel appearing for the Board has pointed out that the schedule for both the examinations was of the same date and same time and therefore, the respondent-writ petitioner could be allowed to appear only in one of the examinations which she has already appeared.

The issue raised in the present appeal shall be examined on merits on the next date. Both the parties shall be ready to submit arguments on that.
