Order

08/07/2026

- 1. This suspension of sentence application has been filed by the present accused-applicants along with the appeal.
- 2. Counsel appearing on behalf of the accused-applicants submits that the accused-applicants have been sentenced to undergo life imprisonment for the offence under Section 302/34 IPC.

3. Learned counsel for the accused-applicants submits that the accused applicants have been falsely implicated in this matter. He further submits that all the accused applicants were on bail during trial. He further submits that the chain of circumstances has not been established in this matter. He further submits that the hearing of appeal may take long time and prayed that sentence awarded to the applicants may be suspended and they be released on bail during the pendency of the appeal.

4. Learned Deputy Government Advocate assisted by counsel for the complainant has opposed the application for suspension of sentence. Learned counsel for the complainant submits that according to the statements of PW-1 and PW-2, the deceased was last seen in the company of the applicants. Learned counsel further submits that according to the statement of PW-10, the applicants had come to their residence a day prior to the incident and was inquiring about his father and in his presence, they talked to his father on mobile phone and asked him to stay at the place where he was staying, and thereafter they went away and on the next morning, he was found dead. It is further submitted that, according to the statement of the doctor (PW-16), injuries were found on the body of the deceased. Therefore, he prayed for dismissal of the application for suspension of sentence.

4. We have heard counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the present case and also considering the statement of PW1, PW2 & PW 10, no case is made out for allowing this criminal miscellaneous suspension of sentence application. Hence, the suspension of sentence application is dismissed.
