Order

06/11/2017

The arguments have been heard to a great length.
During the course of arguments, it has transpired that the issues were also raised before the Division Bench at Jaipur as well as Principal Seat, Jodhpur thus, before passing necessary order in response to the arguments of the respective parties, learned counsel for private respondents are directed to refer nature of their possession on the land. They would indicate whether the land was converted for its use for commercial or residential and that the land was never vested in the Jaipur Development Authority. The status of private respondents is relevant to find out their legal rights in reference to the prayer made in the writ petition.

Learned counsel for the State so as the JDA has otherwise clarified that as per the Master Plan-2025, width of the road from 22-godown to Diggi-Malpura Road is 100 feet and land belongs to JDA and vest in it.

List these cases on 13.11.2017 at 2.00 PM.
