Order

06/02/2026

It is contended by learned counsel for the respondent that impugned order dated 25.04.2025 was challenged before the Division Bench, however the matter could not be taken up.

Contrarily, it is argued by learned counsel for the petitioner that the order was challenged before the Division Bench, however, no stay order was granted in favour of the respondents. The contemnors are deliberately avoiding the compliance of the impugned order, therefore they may be directed to comply with the order.

This court vide order dated 13.01.2026 passed an order considering the peculiar facts of the matter that connecting contempt petition was pronounced on 25.04.2025, the respondents are directed to file the compliance report positively on the next date of hearing. Today instead of filing the compliance report, respondents are seeking adjournment. Learned counsel for the respondent seeks one more opportunity to file reply/compliance report.

List the matter on 23.02.2026.
