Judgment / Order

23/02/2026

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since the amendment sought in the relief was time barred, merely allowing of the amendment may not prejudice his right to raise objection about the limitation of the relief which has been introduced by way of amendment.

2. Considered.

3. The writ petition stands disposed of with a direction that, if any issue in regard to limitation is raised by the defendant-petitioner, in regard to the amended relief, the same shall be adjudicated by the learned Trial Court, without being influenced by the amendment application having been allowed.

4. If the respondents are aggrieved by this order, they are at liberty to file an application to recall this order.

5. Pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
