Order

30/08/2024

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the present FIR pertains to a contractual dispute. It is further submitted that in the instant matter repetitive FIRs are filed in different territories. One FIR bearing number 273/2022 dated 07.08.2022 was registered by Shri Narayan Rathi (authorized representative of Krishna Rolling Mills Ltd.) in West Bengal, and subsequent FIR with akin factual narrative bearing number 732/2022 in Jaipur (Police Station, Jhotwara) dated 26.08.2022 by the complainant Shri Rajesh Pareek.

Per contra, learned counsel appearing for respondent no. 2 has submitted that the foremost FIR registered at West Bengal, was lodged by an unauthorized person, who adopted hand-in-glove approach with the instant petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner herein does not have a locus standi to file the instant petition. Moreover, neither the broker/author/complainant of the foremost FIR – Shri Narayan Rathi is impleaded as a party in the present petition nor any resolution/letter is placed on record on behalf of the company.

Heard.

List the matters on 23.09.2024.

The Investigating Officer is directed to remain present in the Court on the next date of hearing, along with the relevant record.

In the meantime, learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to implead Narayan Rathi as respondent.
